Has there been an application to transfer the premises licence under section 50 of the Licensing Act 2003?

	Yes (please tick)
• I have made or enclosed payment of the fee
• I have sent a copy of this form to the chief officer of police for the area in which the premises is situated
• I have sent a copy of this form to Home Office Immigration Enforcement
• I have notified the designated premises supervisor (if different from the premises licence holder), if any
• I confirm that I am entitled to work in the United Kingdom (see guidance note 2)
• I understand that if I do not comply with the above requirements my application will be rejected

This notice will lapse at the end of the 28-day period, after the lapsing of the premises licence, unless a copy of the notice has been given to the chief officer of police for the police area or each police area in which the premises is situated; and a copy has been sent to home office immigration enforcement. (If the licensable activity is the retail of alcohol or the provision of late-night refreshment, the notice giver must forward the IAN onto the police and SOS. If the licensable activity relates to the supply of alcohol by a club to a member or the provision of regulated entertainment, the IAN must be forwarded onto the police only).

It is an offence, under Section 158 of the Licensing Act 2003, to make a false statement in or in connection with this application. Those who make a false statement may be liable on summary conviction to a fine of any amount.

It is an offence under Section 24b of the Immigration Act 1971 for a person to work when they know, or have reasonable cause to believe, that they are disqualified from doing so by reason of their immigration status. Those who employ an adult without leave or who is subject to conditions as to employment, will be liable for a civil penalty under section 15 of the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006 and, pursuant to Section 21 of the same act, will be committing an offence where they do so in the knowledge, or with reasonable cause to believe, that the employee is disqualified.

Notes for Guidance

1. The notice must be signed.
2. Right to work/immigration status

A licence may not be issued to an individual or an individual in a partnership which is not a limited liability partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have the right to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

They do this in one of two ways:

- 1) by providing, with this application, copies or scanned copies of the documents which an applicant has provided to demonstrate their entitlement to work in the UK (which do not need to be certified) as per information published on gov.uk and in guidance.
- 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Home Office online right to work checking service.

As an alternative to providing a copy of original documents, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their share code, provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>). Which, along with the applicant's date of birth, will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be shared digitally. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copies of documents as set out above.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

3. A notice giver's agent (for example solicitor) may sign the form on their behalf provided that they have actual authority to do so.
4. Where there is more than one notice giver, both notice givers or their respective agents must sign the application form.
5. This is the address which we shall use to correspond with you about this application.
