

FOOD HYGIENE RATING SCHEME – “RIGHT TO REPLY” PROCEDURE

Introduction:

Burnley Borough Council is participating in the National Scheme in partnership with the Food Standards Agency. The scheme provides consumers with information about hygiene standards in food businesses which supply food directly to consumers for consumption either on or off the premises. The purpose of the scheme is to help consumers make informed choices about the places where they eat out and from which they purchase food. This will also encourage food businesses to improve hygiene standards.

Food businesses covered by the scope of the scheme will be inspected by the Council's Food Safety Officers, and a food hygiene rating will be allocated. Burnley Borough Council will notify the food business of the rating within 7 days of the inspection. If no appeal is entered within a 21 day period following notification, the rating allocated will be submitted for publication on the National Food Hygiene Rating Scheme website at:

<http://ratings.food.gov.uk>

Right to Reply procedure:

Food business operators have a 'right to reply' following the food hygiene inspection, which will be published on the website with the rating. Comments should be sent in writing using the attached form to the inspecting officer at:

Food Hygiene Rating Scheme 'Right to reply'

Notes for businesses

- As the food business operator of the establishment you have a 'right to reply' in respect of the food hygiene rating given following your inspection.
- The purpose is to enable you to give an explanation of subsequent actions that have been taken to make the required improvements as detailed in the inspection letter, or to explain mitigation for the circumstances at the time of the inspection. It is not for making complaints or for criticising the scheme or food safety officer.
- If you wish to use this 'right to reply', please use the form below and return it to the food safety officer that undertook your inspection - contact details are provided with the written notification of your food hygiene rating.
- Your comments will be reviewed by the food safety officer and may be edited in order to remove offensive or defamatory remarks before being published online and displayed together with your food hygiene rating at food.gov.uk/ratings.
- There will be a statement at food.gov.uk/ratings that will highlight that the accuracy of your comments has not been verified by local authority officers.
