NATIONAL REGISTER OF TAXI/PRIVATE HIRE LICENCE REFUSALS, & REVOCATIONS & SUSPENSIONS (NR3).

The Licensing Authority provides information to the National Register of Taxi Licence Refusals, Revocations & Suspensions (NR3), a mechanism for licensing authorities to share details of individuals who have had a hackney/ private hire drivers licence revoked or suspended or an application for one refused. This is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the licensing authority – that is, assessing whether an individual is a fit and proper person to hold a hackney/private hire driver’s licence, therefore from 7th November 2018.

- Where a Hackney/ Private Hire Drivers Licence is revoked, suspended or an application for one refused, the authority will automatically record this decision on NR3.

- All applications for a new licence or a licence renewal will automatically be checked on NR3. If a search of NR3 indicates a match with an applicant, the authority will seek further information about the entry on the register from the authority which recorded it. Any information received as a result of an NR3 search will only be used in respect of the specific licence application and will not be retained beyond the determination of that application. The information recorded on NR3 itself will be limited to:
 - Name
 - Date of birth
 - Addresses and contact details
 - National insurance number
 - Driving licence number
 - Decision taken
 - The date of the decision
 - The date the decision was effective from.

Information will be retained on NR3 for a period of 25 years.

This is a mandatory part of applying for and or being granted a Hackney/ Private Hire Drivers Licence. This authority has a published policy on the approach it will take to requests by other authorities for further information about entries on NR3 and about the use it will make of any further information provided to it. Information will be processed in accordance with the Data Protection Act (DPA) and General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Any searches, provision or receipt of information of or under NR3 are necessary to the authorities statutory licensing functions of ensuring that all drivers are fit and proper to hold the applicable licence. It is not intended that any NR3 data will be transferred out of the United Kingdom. If you wish to raise any issue related to the data protection legislation, including by relying on any of the rights afforded to data subjects under the GDPR, you can do so to the authorities Data Protection Officer, The Town Hall, Manchester Road, Burnley BB11 9SY. This includes submitting a subject access request form. You always have the right to make a complaint to the Information Commissioners Office (ICO). Advice on how to raise a concern about handling data can be found on the ICO’s website.
